IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2126) making appropriations for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes with Mr. SENSENBRENNER in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIRMAN. Pursuant to the rule, the bill is considered as having been read the first time.

Under the rule, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. YOUNG] and the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. MURTHA] will each be recognized for 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida [Mr. YOUNG].

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself 5 minutes.

Mr. Chairman, first, I would like to thank all of the members of the subcommittee who have spent the better part of this year in hearings and in markups for the preparation and the presentation of this bill to the full House.

This is a good bill providing for the national defense of our Nation. Mr. Chairman, there are many areas of legislative activity in which the Federal Government finds itself a player, many of which could be done equally as well, if not better, by the States or by the local governments. Mr. Chairman, if there is any one responsibility of the Federal Government, it is to provide for the defense of our Nation and to provide for the security of our national interests wherever they might lie.

The bill we present this evening totals $244.1 billion in budget authority and $244.2 billion in outlays. Compared to the fiscal year 1995 level, we are $2.5 billion higher in budget authority, but $5.4 billion less in outlays. We are above the President's budget request, but we are $2.2 billion less than the authorization bill which passed the House on June 15.

A strong theme of this bill is to provide readiness for U.S. forces should they be called upon to perform in an arena of hostility and to provide some quality of life for those men and women who serve in our uniformed services who are prepared to do just that.

Procurement has been reduced over the last 10 years by 70 percent.

This bill does a little bit to turn that around. While we do provide an increase for procurement, we also add funds for readiness and cost-of-living adjustments, pay raises for people in uniforms, and things of this type.

We have reduced over 120 programs from the amounts requested by the President. We have fully funded the military pay raise, and have also added $90 million for housing allowances. We have added $1 billion for real property maintenance, and much of that goes for the renovation and the repair of our barracks. Many of our soldiers are today living in World War II barracks that are pretty rundown, and we need to make a considerable change there. This bill does that.

Mr. Chairman, there were several philosophies involved here. One was
